

Defendant Marcus Eddings's Proposed Pre-Trial Jury Instruction

Lawfulness of Plaintiff Ivan Santiago's Strip Search

During this case you will hear evidence that the Defendant, Sergeant Marcus Eddings, of the Boston Police Department, strip searched the Plaintiff, Ivan Santiago, on March 20, 2003. I have already decided that this strip search was lawful. Therefore, the only issue for you to decide is whether or not Sergeant Eddings conducted a body cavity search of Plaintiff Santiago. That is, whether Sergeant Eddings inserted his finger into the Plaintiff's rectum during the March 20, 2003 search.
